

As Seen in
The Alumni Magazine of Salus University
2013 Fall Annual Report

Errol G. Rummel, CID '65 was featured in the Bacharach Bulletin (the quarterly newsletter of the Bacharach Institute for Rehabilitation). The article was about his care for those with stroke related hemianopsia and other neuro-related visual ocular issues. Dr. Rummel directs the Neuro-Optometric Rehabilitation and Visual Perception Clinic at the Bacharach Institute of Rehabilitation. He recently developed an advanced optical technology system (Side Vision Awareness Glasses) for improving visual awareness, helping safety issues, and allowing more comfortable daily living activities for people who have suffered a stroke or head injury related hemianopia

THE ALUMNI MAGAZINE OF SALUS UNIVERSITY

AND 2012 - 2013 ANNUAL REPORT

News Release

SVAG

Errol G. Rummel, OD '65 was featured in the Bacharach Bulletin (the quarterly newsletter of the Bacharach Institute for Rehabilitation). The article was about his care for those with stroke related hemianopsia and other neuro-related visual/ocular issues. Dr. Rummel directs the Neuro-Optometric Rehabilitation and Visual Perception Clinic at the Bacharach Institute of Rehabilitation. He recently developed an advance optical technology system (Side Vision Awareness Glasses) for improving visual awareness, helping safety issues, and allowing more comfortable daily living activities for people who have suffered a stroke or head injury related hemianopsia.

Louis J. Verdelli, OD '68 retired in December of 2011 and is enjoying his homes in Avalon, New Jersey and Fort Myers, Florida.

Louis J. Catania, OD '69 has been named the American Academy of Optometry's 2013 Eminent Service Awardee.

Miles J. Glasser, OD '75 received the President's Volunteer Service Award from President Obama, along with a silver Presidential Medal for logging 300 volunteer hours last year. Dr. Glasser has been practicing in Broward County, Florida since 1976.

Scott Goldberg, OD '76, FAAO was highlighted in the July issue of the AOA magazine as an OD "making a difference." Dr. Goldberg is POA's 2012 Optometrist of the Year.

Andrew M. Prischak, OD '77 and Susan J. Godzac, OD '78 sold their branch office in October of 2012 (they sold their main office in 1999). Dr. Prischak has left The Sight Center of Northwestern Pennsylvania and has now joined his wife doing fill-in work in the Erie area. He has met three-fourths of his goal of swimming around the world.

Anthony P. Cullen, OD '78, PhD received the Life Fellow Award this past October at the American Academy of Optometry's 2013 Award Presentation in Seattle Washington.

Frank J. Pirozzolo, OD '78 was highlighted in the AOA's July magazine as an OD "making a difference."

Diane Adamczyk, OD '85 received the Scientific Achievement Award from the New Jersey Society of Optometric Physicians (NJSOP) in September. Dr. Adamczyk was honored by her peers in grateful recognition of her invaluable contributions to the visual welfare of the community, the association, and to the science and profession of optometry. The annual award is presented to a recipient whose has made "worthy achievements in optometric-related research." Dr. Adamczyk is director of Residency Education at SUNY College of Optometry.

David R. McPhillips, OD '85 was recently named the 25th VOSH/International Fellow.

Daniel T. Brown, OD '88 was featured in an article for FLORIDA TODAY about what inspired him to become an optometrist.